REGISTRATION WITH US EMBASSIES

The world unfortunately is not a safe place. When you travel abroad and surrounded by foreign environment many situations, in some cases hostile may arise, like terrorist attacks, banditry or even war. Plus there are natural disasters and catastrophes.

Visacenter.us can help you to make your contact information in the country where you are traveling available to US Embassy/Consular officials responsible for helping Americans abroad.

What is the registration?

Upon your request the Department of State in Washington DC will be provided with your major contact information in the country of your travel. In the event there is a need to contact Americans to offer urgent advice or evacuation during a natural disaster or civil unrest, US Embassy/Consulate contacts all registered US citizens in that country. U.S. consular officers assist Americans who encounter serious legal, medical, or financial difficulties.

OFFICIAL REGISTRATION IS RECOMMENDED for ALL Americans traveling abroad for business or pleasure, or residing abroad, irrespectively of the length of travel.

It is best to register BEFORE the start of the trip.

What should I do to register?

To register, you are required to fill-out short US Embassy Registartion Request Form with your basic contact and travel information.

What is the cost?

The cost of peace of mind is just USD10.00 per person.
